

2022 ESG Disclosure Timeline

START ←

Q4 2021

Identify internal stakeholders who will be involved in ESG reporting. Find your internal ESG champions.

Pull data for ESG metrics relevant to your material ESG topics to start conducting analyses.

Identify reporting frameworks most relevant to your business and build reporting timeline.

Work with stakeholders to understand what ESG topics are most relevant to your business. Conduct a materiality assessment & leverage tools such as SASB Materiality Map.

Now that the scores have been released, it will be time to start the initial planning for the next reporting cycle... Return to "START."

S&G Global CSA scores are released.

Review scores, assess ESG reporting gaps, and identify areas of improvement.

CDP scores are released.

Q1 2022

Aggregate ESG resources, data, and assessments for submissions.

S&P Global sends out email invitations to participate in CSA to large publicly traded companies.

CDP questionnaires guidance is released. Review and understand latest requirements.

Develop content, assure and review ESG contents, release filings and reports, and track progress against ESG goals/targets.

For general reporting, you should continue communicating with stakeholders/shareholders on the reported content.

The CDP submission is due in late July (subject to change).

Conduct cooldown meetings with internal and external stakeholders.

S&G Global CSA questionnaire submission is due in late July/early August (subject to change).

Q2 2022

Write your narratives. Work with internal stakeholders to draft responses to questionnaires and begin internal review.

CDP reporting platform opens and companies begin submitting response.

S&G Global CSA questionnaire opens and companies begin submitting response.

Finalize and release Q2 filings, communicate with stakeholders/shareholders on reported content.

Q3 2022

Contact info.us@anteagroup.us with questions or for ESG Reporting and Disclosure Support